

School Districts with a Change in Superintendent for the 2020-21 School Year

The Iowa Association of School Boards collects and compiles information pertaining to changes in superintendents and school business officials. Information includes (if available), the new hire’s name, the new hire’s previous position and school district, and effective date. The information is located on the HR Central Salary and Personnel Resources Toolbox. The information is obtained through collaboration with the School Administrators of Iowa (SAI), news postings, and district outreach.

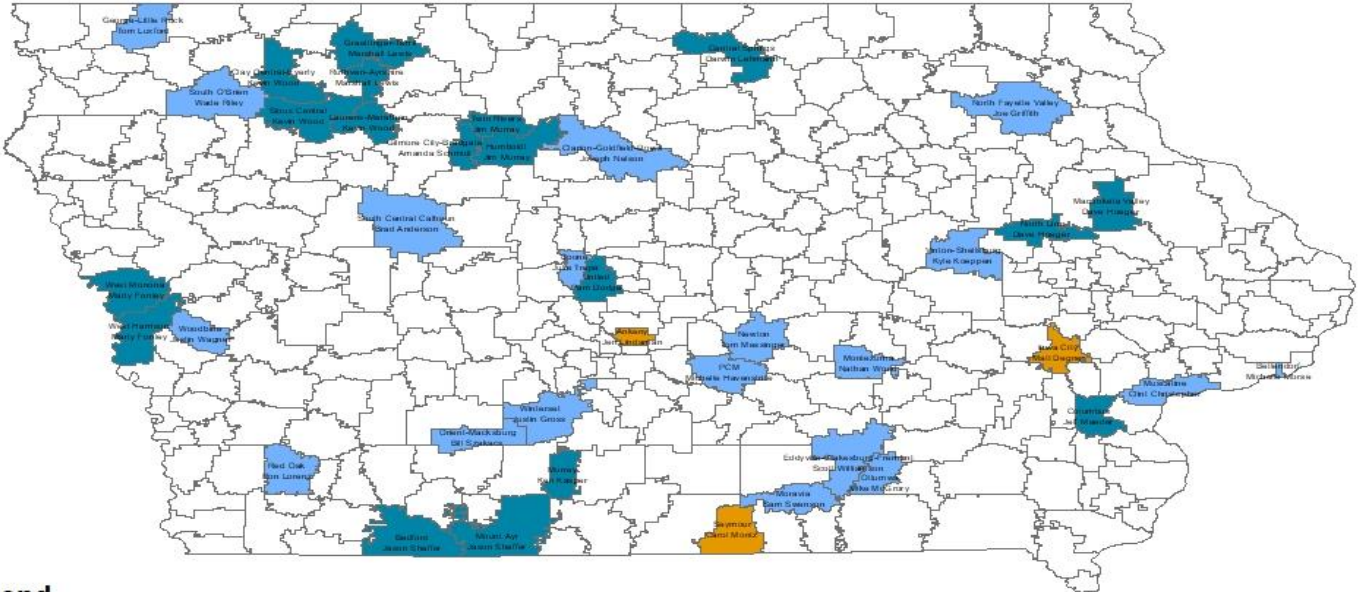

The following chart provides the number of school districts with new superintendents between the school years of 2011-12 through 2020-21 (as of July 21, 2020). The number of changes in 2020-21 decreased to 40, including 18 districts that have a superintendent that is shared with at least one other district.

The following map provides school districts that had a change in superintendents for the 2020-21 school year (information updated through July 21, 2020). Based on the current data, there are 40 school districts that have changed superintendents, including three superintendents serving as interims. View a larger map (or click on map below). Additionally, Prairie Lakes Area Education Agency has a new Chief Administrator and Indian Hills Community College has a new president.
